Of Dead Mexican Soldiers Buried on the Battlefield

THANKSGIVING VISITORS

Find Wounded Soldiers and Send Them to Hospitals —Federals Tear Up the Railroad Tracks to Pre- vent Pursuit.

(Associated Press Telegram)
El Paso, Texas, Nov. 25.—Coyotes have attacked the graves of Federal and Rebel soldiers who were killed at Tierra Blanca in the battle between Rebel and Federal forces this week and buried on the battlefield. In another place the wind had blown away the thin layer of sand which had been thrown over the bodies in the guise of burying them. Americans visiting the field Thanksgiving Day also found two wounded soldiers whom they sent to hospitals.

At Samalayuca, a few miles south of the battlefield the body of a Rebel soldier who had been taken prisoner by the Federals during the battle was found hanging by a rope to a tree where he had been executed by the Federals. The body was taken down and buried by his fellow soldiers.

Federals have torn up the railroad tracks on the English line in many places south of Samalayuca in order to prevent General Villa's troops pursuing by train. A work-train has been sent south to repair the line so that Villa's troops can proceed to Chihuahua. A string of cars attached to a Federal train was burned by the Federals below Samalayuca.

A herd of 300 cavalry horses which had been abandoned by the Federals in their retreat after the Tierra Blanca battle was found by Rebel scouts several miles below the battlefield.

REBELS EXECUTE ALL OFFICIALS OF VICTORIA

(Associated Press Telegram)
Mexico, City, Nov. 25.—Blood and family ties did not avail to halt the vengeance of the constitutionalists when federal office holders fell into their hands at the capture of the city of Victoria, capital of the state of Tamaulipas.

State as well as federal officials were executed without quarter. Among those killed was a young civilian cousin of Enrique Caballero, who is the leader of the rebels at Victoria and one of the chief lieutenants of Venustiano Carranza. The young civilian was condemned to die because he had helped the federal troops to defend the city.

The young man's mother, who is an aunt of the rebel officer, went on her knees and begged the life of her son. Caballero's reply was to have his cousin brought from the prison and stood in front of a firing squad of revolutionists who shot him down before his mother's eyes.

Details of the capture of Victoria, which occurred a week ago, reached Mexico City today. General Antonio Rabago, the federal commander of Victoria upon evacuating the city, proceeded with his troops to the southwest in the expectation of making a connection with the federal column commanded by General Ruben Navarrete, who was trying to go to the assistance of the garrison of Victoria.

The rebels, however, sent out a flying squadron to meet General Navarrete's troops and checked their progress. The fate of both General Navarrete and his troops is not known.

Would Form Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to the English Language

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Nov. 25.—Joseph Jastrow, speaking here today before the national council of teachers of English, referred to the possibility of a society for the prevention of cruelty to the English language.

Professor Jastrow told the result of a inquiry as to what would be the outcome if fifty objectionable expressions caught in ordinary conversation were fined such amounts varying from five cents to one dollar as seemed a fitting punishment for each separate offense according to the pain inflicted upon the hearer. The judges, 68 in number, included twelve women. Half of the 68 reside east of the Alleghenies. Among the judges were college professors, leading editors, and readers for prominent publishing houses.

What prompted Prof. Jastrow's unique inquiry was a study of linguistic sensibility as a field for the determination of the variety of factors of judging process.

N. Scott of the University of Michigan whose topic was "the undefined state" asked:

"Of what use is it to drill pupils in grammar, to sweat over compositions, to spend month after month in the reading and study of English masterpieces if steadily day by day some powerful disintegrating agency nullifies all that we have accomplished?"

Not even the Bible, Prof. Scott said could now compete with the daily newspapers as the most powerful and most pervasive influence of our day and nation. Accordingly, Professor Scott urged that the language as well as spirit of the newspaper should be the equal of that required of any other daily visitor to the daily circle.

He said slang colloquialisms, indiscriminate use of words, violations of grammar and style, the split infinitive, the dangling participle, the abuse of "transpire," "inaugurate," and "enthusias" could be corrected and he pleaded far more against any violation of the great principles of good writing and of appreciation—the principles of amenity, truth, sincerity and self restraint.

It was suggested by Prof. Scott that in ever high school junior and senior year a definite time, say a week, be set apart for instruction in regard to the newspaper, the time to be known as newspaper work.

PREMIER BORDEN DENIES VISIT IS DIPLOMATIC ONE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Nov. 25.—Premier Robert L. Borden of Canada, stopped in Washington today on his way to Ottawa from Hot Springs, Va., where he has been spending a month's vacation. Secretary Bryan will entertain him at dinner tonight and Secretary Franklin Lane, an old personal friend gave a luncheon. Mr. Borden is accompanied by Mrs. Borden and expects to resume his journey to Canada at midnight.

While here he stopped at the British embassy as the guest of Ambassador Spring-Rice.

To an inquiry as to the possibility of negotiations between Washington and Ottawa regarding changes in the Canadian tariff or the renewal of efforts to secure a reciprocity arrangement between the United States and Canada Mr. Borden said that he had no such purpose in mind in his present visit to Washington. He did not care to make any prediction as to what was likely to happen in advance of a formal consideration of the subject by the Canadian government.

Mr. Borden paid a visit to President Wilson at the white house at 11:00 o'clock in company with Secretary Bryan who called for him at the British embassy.

The workmen's compensation law went into effect March 1, 1912 and to date 22 death claims have been allowed. The total of awards of all classes is $75,368.94.

Operators Accept but the Miners Reject the Good Offices of Gov. Ammons

(Associated Press Telegram)
Denver, Colo., Nov. 25.—The acceptance by the operators and the rejection by the miners' representatives late last night of a statement of facts submitted by Governor E. M. Ammons upon which the governor hoped to obtain the resumption of the conference upon the southern coal field strike led to the practical withdrawal of the governor from conciliatory measures and an order by the executive to Adjutant General Chase to enforce the law in the strike zone.

Immediately after the operators had accepted and the miners had rejected the governor's statement of facts, Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson issued a statement, which, co-signed by Governor Ammons was presented to the operators and the miners' representatives. Both promised to give it consideration.

The reason given by the strikers' representatives for the rejection of the governor's statement was it put aside the question of recognition of the union.

Secretary Wilson's statement suggested in lieu of the recognition of the union, a board of seven arbitrators, three to be appointed by each side, and the six to select a seventh. If the six cannot agree the seventh is to be appointed by President Wilson.

STATE BOARD WILL MAKE EFFORT TO SETTLE STRIKE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 25.—William J. Rogers and James C. Mannus of the state board of mediation and arbitration arrived here this morning in an effort to settle the strike of the 14,000 employees of the General Electric company.

A conference between company officials, the strikers committee and Geo. R. Lunn, the Socialist mayor of the city took place later in the day.

The threatened sympathetic strike of employees of the street railway did not materialize today. The trolley cars run within a short distance of the General Electric company property and strike sympathizers have urged the conductors and motormen to tie up the lines.

BELIEVE THAT COOPER MAY HAVE BEEN MURDERED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cincinnati, Nov. 25.—Frank Toole of Columbus, a cooper, was today found dead in the kiln of the Ohio Cooperative company, at Arlington Heights, near Lockland. Because of abrasions on his head and the fact that some of his clothing is missing, foul play is suspected.

The discovery of the body was made by Spence Miller, an employee of the company, whose duty it is look after the kiln. The body was lying in a narrow passage to the kiln. He notified the officials of the company and they in turn called up Coroner Foerstmeyer.

TEACHERS IN SESSION AT MADISON

Meeting of the American Conference of Teach- ers of Journalism

"THE NEWSPAPER STYLE"

Becoming More Essential to Successful Writers— Meets the Demands of Millions for Something to Compel Their Attention.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Madison, Wis., Nov. 25.—"The newspaper style, which is becoming more and more essential in the equipment of every successful writer, is the clearest, most concise and most interesting style in which things can be written," declared Professor F. W. Beckmann of Iowa State College today in addressing the professors of journalism of 18 colleges and universities gathered here for the second meeting of the American conference of teachers of journalism.

"The news sense, the ability to see what is news and its meaning to the great mass of humanity, is necessary to men in every field of endeavor but especially to men who write."

"It is the news sense which enables the writer to see through a mass of non-essentials to the essential, through dead rubbish to living facts, through hush and shush to the kernels of truth," continued the speaker.

It is the news sense that gives the writer understanding of, and sympathy with common activities of men so that he can find what will interest them.

"With all its faults I still believe in the news style as the most efficient style of this modern day for presenting information through the written word. It has been hammered out of the heat and stress of newspaper work to meet the demands of the millions for something to compel their attention, interest them and give the information in the quickest, clearest way possible."

"The news writer comes fresh from the things he writes and puts the energy and life, or it may be, the joy and sorrow of what he has just seen or heard into the living, breathing words of his story."

There is a living quality in newspaper writing that demands attention. This style is more widely used than any other. It is of the people and for them and it had come through years to have a value that cannot be denied.

"The ranks of present day literary successes is followed by men and women who had their training in newspaper offices. The demands of editors and publishers every where is for matter written in the same natural, concise, interesting way that has made the newspaper the most readable publication printed, either today or in any time."

President James Melvin Lee, of New York university discussed instruction in advertising, brief matters and other phases of the newspaper in connection with college courses in journalism.

DR. WILEY MAY BECOME HEALTH COMMISSIONER

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Nov. 25.—Friends of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former federal pure food chief, admitted today that the doctor was considering an offer to become health commissioner of New York city. Dr. Wiley was away on his Virginia farm out of reach of telephone and telegraph and expected to return to the city tonight.

None of the doctor's friends knew whether he would take the place for which he had conferred once with Mayor-elect John Purroy Mitchel and had been in correspondence with others in New York about the offer.

The marriage ceremony requires the bride to be given away in spite of the fact that he is frequently sold.

BOYS START FIRE IN NEW HOUSE IN N. 12th STREET

Boys are blamed for the damage done to the new house under process of construction between Church and Locust street in North Twelfth, shortly after noon Friday. Firemen who found a difficult fight on their hands, learned that several boys in the neighborhood succeeded in getting into the basement of the house, where a fire was started in a furnace before it was ready for service.

The blaze was soon communicated to the wood work in the house and the flames ate their way between the plastering, causing an exceedingly difficult fire to fight. It was necessary to use both the chemicals and water before the blaze was extinguished.

The loss may amount to more than $150. It is fully covered by insurance. The house was being built by William G. Koman of Merchant street, a molder employed at the plant of the Wehrle company. The interior was still unfinished, the floor being down in only one room.

An investigation will be made and arrests may follow.

ZELAYA FIGHTS FOR HIS FREEDOM

Nicaraguan General, Held for Murder of Two, Seeks Escape via Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Nov. 25.—Counsel for General Jose Santos Zelaya, former president of Nicaragua, planned to apply for a writ of habeas corpus today to obtain his release from the Tombs where he is held a prisoner by the federal authorities, on a charge of murder. This writ will take precedence over his examination by United States Commissioner Shields, set for next Monday.

The state department is waiting for additional information from the Nicaraguan government concerning the nature of the case with which the former president is charged. This information is expected to throw light on the question as to whether the alleged crime, that of the murder of two fellow countrymen, is political and if so not subject to the extradition laws as contended by Zelaya's attorneys.

Counsel expected to submit with their application for a writ of habeas corpus an affidavit from Zelaya which it was said would practically constitute his defense and necessitate the argument of the merits of the case before a United States judge.

Zelaya sent out word from his cell in the Tombs today that he would not discuss his case.

VENIREMEN CALLED FOR CRAIG CASE

Opening of the Trial of Dr. Wm. B. Craig on Murder Charge

DEFENDANT'S DAUGHTER

Accompanied Her Father to Court This Morning—Of Fifty Veniremen Sum- moned, Forty are Farm- ers.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 25.—Lawyers and newspaper men outnumbered the curious in the courtroom today at the opening of the trial of Dr. William B. Craig for the murder of Dr. Helen Knabe. Little time was wasted in preliminary the usual motion to quash the indictment was overruled, and the defense noted an exception.

Examination of jurymen then was begun. It was apparent from questions asked prospective jurors by attorneys for the prosecution that the trial was expected to extend over a long period.

Dr. Craig arrived from Indianapolis on an early morning train, accompanied by his fourteen-year-old daughter Marion. Father and daughter proceeded to the courthouse at once where the accused man's five lawyers were awaiting them. Behind this legal bulwark the two took their seats and listened attentively to the examination of veniremen. Formal arraignment of the defendant was waived, counsel signifying that they would enter a plea of not guilty.

Before Circuit Judge Blair convened court Prosecutor Frank Baker of Indianapolis denied a report that the prosecution was seeking for a witness a man who could throw some new light on the death of Dr. Knabe. In the selection of jurors the prosecution was careful to learn whether the veniremen would be willing to convict on circumstantial evidence.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 25.—Fifty veniremen from which it is hoped to secure the jury which will decide the fate of Mr. William B. Craig, of Indianapolis charged with the murder of Dr. Helen Knabe two years ago, responded to summons where the circuit court was convened here today. While the majority of those connected with the case declare it may be several days before a jury is secured a few expressed the opinion that the 12 men will be selected before adjournment is taken this afternoon.

Of the fifty men summoned, 40 are farmers and eight are Shelbyville business men.

Judge Blair has made preparations for holding night sessions if it is found necessary and yesterday electric lights were installed in the courtroom.

FIRE DESTROYS UNLUCKY BLOCK EARLY TODAY

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Nov. 25.—A loss of upwards of $100,000 was caused early today by fire which completely burned out four upper floors of the Livingston building at West Broadway and Third street. When this building was in course of construction in 1898 a wall of it fell into the street, killing 20 persons. Since that time the building has been visited by numerous fires, the origin of which have sometimes been unexplained as was the case today. The blaze was spectacular and so threatening that all of the occupants of a six-story apartment house adjoining were ordered from their beds to the street.

PRIKOGEN'S FARM EXISTED ONLY IN A FERTILE BRAIN

George Prikozen arrested once in Newark on a charge of killing Matt Hurley, was again arrested Thursday, this time on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Joseph Stroea filed an affidavit before Mayor Swartz charging Prikozen with getting $40 from him by representing that he was about to realize on the sale of his farm in Hungary.

According to the story related by the prosecuting witness, Stroea, Prikozen in 1909, told him that he had a farm in the old country which he was about to sell. Prikozen wanted $10 and promised to return the amount when the property was sold. He got the $10 but it developed that he had no property across the water and that he never did have the farm and wasn't likely to have it. Stroea tried various means of collecting the money, waiting patiently for Prikozen to keep his promise to pay. He finally resorted to criminal action to bring his debtor to time.

In police court Prikozen when arraigned pleaded not guilty and the hearing was set for Friday afternoon. It was still in progress at 3 o'clock.

Section Hand Killed at Pine Street Crossing by Pennsylvania Train

Failure to heed the warning shout in time to escape being struck by the train.

A section hand employed by the B. & O. railroad company, met instant death when he was struck by Pennsylvania passenger train No. 45. His neck was broken, his skull fractured and his hip crushed.

The accident occurred about 9 o'clock Friday morning at the Pine street crossing where Rosso was working with his gang under Foreman George Bird. When the passenger train approached, Bird shouted a warning to his men and he himself dashed Jim Peko. Rosso's companion, from the track, barely had time to escape being struck by the train.

Rosso was directly in the track when the rapidly moving train hit him and hurled him to one side of the track. Death must have been instantaneous, as his neck was broken close to the skull.

The ambulance of Bazley & Bradley was called and the man's body removed to their morgue, where it was viewed by Coroner Wytarsch and later prepared for burial.

Rosso has been a resident of Newark for about three months, though he has been in this country for seven or eight years. He boarded with Jim Peko, of West Railroad street. No funeral arrangements have been made.

Uncle Walt
Richard Roe

Richard Roe, in dire amaze, draws ten dollars or ten days. Since he has no store of kale, Richard has to go to jail, where he sits with other bums, eating grub and twiddling thumbs. When the weather throws a fit, Richard and his comrades sit, calm and cozy in the jail, snug as insects in a rug; thrice a day the jailer comes, bringing bread and shredded plums, coffee, bacon, things like those, for the bunch of Richard Roes. And the men outdoors who work—mason, painter, clerk—must supply the bed and board for the gray and greasy horde. Men who wear away their lives to support their kids and wives, must contribute of the rocks that they earn by grievous snobs, to supply the beer and ale to the loafers in the jail. When this country's managed right, such things won't distress the sight. There will be some better plan, and the idle, worthless man will not be a stifling weight on the ones who pay the freight. Man must give his money's worth, or be hustled off the earth.

Prompt Distribution of Crop Reports

The government has recently devised an extremely efficient method of distributing crop reports. Formerly the reports reached farmers from seven to ten days after the information was gathered, too late to be of much use to them. Under the new plan the report is telegraphed at once to some central point, there quickly reproduced, and mailed to every newspaper in the state. Thus not only the large dailies but also the county seat and the small town paper receive the information within twelve to eighteen hours. The experiment is being tried in Illinois, Missouri, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas and Texas; and if it is as successful as expected will be rapidly extended to other states.

Drinking Water With Meals

Scientific investigations have exploded the old idea that drinking water with meals is harmful. It was formerly thought that water dilutes the digestive juices so as to make them ineffective. Conclusive experiments, carried on for several months with many persons, show that those who drink much water with meals digest their food more quickly and more completely and keep in better physical condition than those who drink little or none. The explanation is that water has no effect upon the ferments in the juices, but partially liquefies the food as the juices act upon it readily.

Hulling Walnuts Made Easy

As ordinarily practised, hulling walnuts is troublesome because of the stain and the tediousness of the work. An ingenious youth therefore contrived a better method by using an old discarded "barrel" churn. He half filled it with walnuts, added a little coarse gravel and enough water to cover the walnuts, and turned the churn at a moderate rate half an hour. The walnuts were completely hulled.

Law Protecting Frogs.

The Wisconsin frog crop is so valuable that the last legislature enacted a law protecting the amphibians during the breeding months, March and April. It is estimated that the value of the annual catch exceeds $150,000. With prices soaring, the law became necessary to prevent the extinction of the frogs.

Wisdom from Washington
By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 27.—(Special).—How the economists will have to worry and struggle during the coming session when the appropriations are made. The demands for more money are greater than ever before, and the Democrats were elected on a platform pledged to economy. More than that, the Democrats in congress have been everlastingly hammering their opponents for a dozen years about their extravagance.

Now when the party of economy comes into power there seems to be no way of curbing the desire for spending the money in the treasury. "It is awful to get into power on a platform of economy," remarked one of the Democratic senators, "for when the time comes we can't make good on our promises."

$10,000,000 Increase For the Army.
Right off the reel there is an increase in the estimates of $10,000,000 for the army, and yet the secretary of war is not getting all he wants. Even with that he has pruned the estimates. Along comes Secretary Daniels, with estimates for more money for the navy, coupled with a demand in congress for more battleships.

Passing to the side of peace, we notice that many men propose to spend millions for improving the roads of the country. A vocational educational bill or a measure to teach agriculture on a greatly enlarged scale seems certain to pass. There will be no letup in demand for public buildings and for river and harbor appropriations. In fact, all those measures which mean large expenditures seem certain to be passed. These will swell the general total above anything in the past.

Must Make Bryan Smile.
It must make Bryan smile when he sees papers which strenuously supported the gold standard and denounced the Nebraska candidate and his party on the free silver question, now saying that perhaps bimetalism is just what is necessary if the whole world would adopt it. Scarcity of hard money is said to be the cause of the financial difficulties the world over.

Bryan's smile might be broader if he had not tacitly consented to nailing down the gold standard by direct provision in the currency bill which passed the house and is now in the senate. But this talk of restoring silver to its place as a money metal is really interesting at this time when financial stress hovers over the world.

Good Pocket Money.
With Christmas only a short distance away that mileage for members of congress looks like good pocket money. Heretofore when members came to Washington for the first regular session of congress they had been at home for nine months enjoying themselves and spending as little money as possible. They had been drawing salaries all the time, just as if they had been in Washington. They came here in December and right off the bat their mileage was available, 20 cents a mile for the entire distance from their homes to the capital. It made good pocket money with Christmas looking them in the face.

AFTER GRIPPE
Made Strong by Vinol.

John C. Furman, of Clarion, Pa., says: "After a very severe attack of the gripe my system was in a weakened, nervous and run-down condition. I had no appetite at all. I was obliged to continue with my work, and nothing seemed to help me until a friend induced me to take Vinol. I began to note good results from the first bottle. I continued its use and am now sound and well as ever."

In health one cannot realize how depressed a person may become after trying one remedy after another without benefit for such a condition as Mr. Furman was in, or what a relief it is to find help and be restored to health and strength.

It is the combined action of the medicinal curative element of cods' livers without the greasy oil, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient in building up the weakened run-down system.

We guarantee Vinol to give you perfect satisfaction. Frank D. Hall, druggist, Newark, O.

Extra Power

Every well designed machine has a power, a capacity beyond its ordinary requirements.

This extra power may never actually be used, yet the possessor of the machine is thereby given a confidence in the ability of the machine to meet all conditions, whereas if the machine were always working up to its limit, the slightest overload would put it out of commission.

This same principle applies to your finances.

Spend all of your income, have no extra margin, no savings account for emergencies, and the least unlooked for demand puts you in financial embarrassment, may even deeply humiliate you.

Have a savings account here and accumulate a surplus fund to give you extra power at any time when your ordinary financial plans may go wrong.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O. All druggists.

BOTHERED BY CATARRH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, HEAD OR CHEST COLDS

Try the New External Treatment—Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption. No Stomach Dosing.

For years we have been doing ourselves to cure cold troubles despite the fact that vapor treatments are quicker and do not disturb the stomach. The trouble has been that the old method of administering these vapors such as vapor lamps, etc., were very cumbersome. Vick's "Vapo-Rub" Cream and Pneumonia Salve contains Menthol, Thymol, Eucalyptol, Camphor and Pine Tar, combined by a special process, so that they are vaporized when Vick's is applied to the heat of the body. These vapors open the air passages, loosen the phlegm, and heal the inflamed mucous membrane.

For Catarrh and Head Colds melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors. Also apply well up the nostrils. For Asthma and Hay Fever follow the above instructions and also rub well over the spinal column, thus relaxing the nervous tension. For Bronchitis, Sore Throat, and deep chest colds, apply well over chest and throat, first opening the pores by applications of hot wet towels. Then cover with a warm flannel cloth, leaving the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be inhaled all night long. In addition Vick's is absorbed through the pores taking out the tightness and soreness. Three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Decorations for Debutante Affairs

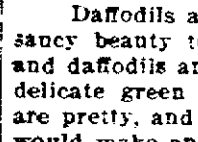

With coming-out teas or some other debutante affair taking place almost every day now, and with many girls home from college for the Thanksgiving holidays, and little informal parties being given for them, the question of how to decorate the home or the table for such functions is one that many a hostess ponders quite seriously.

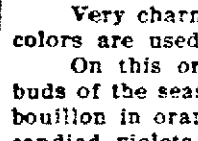

Any sort of greenery or flowers is always pretty; but many hostesses who are giving a purely debutante affair like to have some decoration that seems specially in keeping with it.

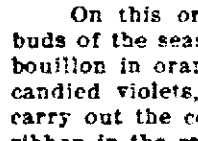

White flowers seem particularly appropriate for a debutante affair. And if one wants to carry the idea still farther, a snow luncheon is a very dainty way to entertain. At this, everything that can be of the snowy color is in pure white. White flowers, white candles, white bonbons, white ices, and all such things, are suitable. A cream soup, a salad of the white hearts of lettuce and celery, white potatoes, either creamed or mashed, the white meat of chicken—all such dishes are appropriate.

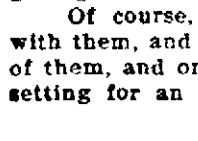

Daffodils are also dainty for a debutante affair, as they seem in their saucy beauty to suggest youth and high spirits. Violets are charming; and daffodils and violets can be combined in most exquisite effects. Merely delicate green effects made out of the asparagus and maiden hair fern are pretty, and combined with snowy linen and sparkling silver and china, would make an attractive table decoration.

Very charming also is a rainbow affair in which the delicate rainbow colors are used for the decorative scheme.

On this order is a rainbow luncheon being planned for one of the buds of the season. A rainbow made of flowers will arch the table. Jellied bouillon in orange cups, minced chicken with yellow sauce, a green salad, candied violets, blue decorations on the cakes, and cherry ice will help carry out the color scheme. A tiny rainbow made of wire wreathed with ribbon in the rainbow colors, with a little gilded pot at the end, filled with bonbons wrapped in gold paper, will be given as souvenirs. It promises to be wonderfully pretty, there will be such a glow of color. And that it will be a success goes without saying. For when a bevy of bright young girls gets together for such an affair a good time is sure to ensue.

Of course, rosebuds are always appropriate. And mantels banked with them, and buds in vases here and there, as well as a centerpiece made of them, and one exquisite bud laid at each place would make a beautiful setting for an affair in honor of youth.

A Staple Medicine for Every Family

No Self Respecting Group of People should be Without a Good Family Laxative.

It is inconceivable in this day of general intelligence that any family would be without a simple remedy for the minor ills of life, for often by giving such a remedy in time a serious disease can be frustrated and a life saved.

For example, if at the first sign of a cold a simple laxative-remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin were given, the beginning of a serious lung affection or of a typhoid fever might be avoided. And also in headaches, nervousness, etc., a small dose of this remedy would relieve the congestion and replace distress with comfort. Mothers give it to tiny infants and little children, and grown people take it with equally good effect.

Thousands of good American homes are never without it, among them the home of Mrs. C. A. Wright, 1231 Pasadena Ave., Long Beach, Cal. She had considerable trouble raising little Lawrence, three years old, but after regulating his bowels with small doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he began to thrive and she has had no further trouble with him. They use it generally in her home.

Syrup Pepsin saves the health of the family and it saves doctor's bills. It is a guaranteed cure for any form of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, gas on the stomach, ach, headaches, drowsiness after eating, etc. Have no hesitancy about giving it to any member of the family, however young or old, for it contains nothing injurious to the youngest person.

A bottle can be obtained at any nearby drug store for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is more economical and is bought by those who have already convinced themselves of its merits. Syrup Pepsin users learn to discard pills, salts, cathartics and purgatives generally as they are too great a shock to any average system.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 116 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

Our Police System Inferior To That of Foreign Cities

By RAYMOND B. FOSDICK, Former Commissioner of Accounts of New York City

As the result of my trip abroad for the bureau of social hygiene I believe I have obtained the solution of the police problem.

From what I have observed in London, Paris, Vienna, Berlin and elsewhere I can safely say there is much of value for our police to learn.

In continental cities a more military police is the order, while in London the police is less of a military organization than the force in New York.

That there is SOMETHING VITALLY THE MATTER WITH OUR SYSTEM is a certainty, held so both here and by the police abroad.

THE PRESTIGE OF THE POLICE IS GREATER THERE. CRIMINALS FEAR THE POLICE MORE, PROBABLY BECAUSE RETRIBUTION IS SWIFTER.

The courts and the law's delays enter into this problem of rendering our police less swift. OFFHAND, ONE MIGHT SAY THERE WAS LESS GRAFT ABROAD, but the exact amount in each city would be impossible to locate. It was not understood here until great investigations began.

But do not suppose the police in Europe are perfect. There are evils there mixed with the good.

Questions and Answers

What is the principal crop in Panama?

Bananas, and other products raised in small quantities are sugar cane, cacao, coffee, rice, corn, yams and sweet potatoes. There are also mineral deposits, but mining is little developed.

Which is the preponderant single power of Europe today? Which is the stronger of the two combinations, Germany, Austria and Italy on one side and France, Russia and England on the other?

Only a war costing fortunes could conclusively decide. Much would depend on the advantages and disadvantages of position.

What is the "Drago" doctrine?

The "Drago" gets its name from the celebrated jurist of Argentina, Dr. L. F. Drago. In the winter of 1902-3 Great Britain, Germany and Italy blockaded the ports of Venezuela in an attempt to make that country pay its debts. It was then that the "Drago" doctrine was announced, contending that force cannot be used by any power to collect money owing to its citizens by another power. Prominence was given to the contention by the fact that it was officially upheld by Argentina and favored by other South American republics. The principle embodied has become known as the "Drago" doctrine.

Is it true that Pope Pius X's name in English is Taylor?

Pope Pius X's name is Giuseppe Sarato, which in English corresponds to Joseph Taylor.

What is the "initiative" as applied to the initiative, referendum and recall?

The initiative in this sense has been defined as "the giving to the people the right of proposing legislation to be acted upon;" the referendum as "the referring of legislation to the people for final rejection or acceptance." The initiative gives the people the power to originate laws. If a certain percentage of the voters, say 10 per cent, sign a petition for a law and file it with the proper official it must come before the legislature and perhaps come before the people. Sometimes the law requires that legislation be referred to the people whether they petition it or not.

Should letters of condolence and flowers sent on the death of a member of the family be acknowledged?

Both flowers and notes should be acknowledged. There is no need for a lengthy expression, a few lines being sufficient, but all such letters and testimonials should be answered.

Can any one besides a postmaster or a sworn in clerk deliver mail in a post office? If not, what is the penalty for such an offense and upon whom would it be inflicted?

It is illegal for any one not "sworn in" to handle or deliver mail, and a postmaster found guilty of permitting it would lose his postmastership. Under a recent act of congress, however, a postmaster, when extraordinary need arises, may swear in any one to serve him in any capacity even if it is only for a day. This makes it unnecessary for him to employ any one not sworn into the government service.

What is the color of dust? Why is it black on white things and light on material of dark color?

Dust has no special color, since it is composed of all sorts of things—particles of coal and other minerals, grains of sand blown from the earth's surface, pollen and other forms of vegetable matter, etc. The reason it looks black against a white surface and vice versa is that the particles that are visible against a dark surface are naturally the light ones, whereas when dust settles on a light surface the dark particles catch the eye.

"Excuse Me."

That highly successful, therefore popular farce "Excuse Me," written by Rupert Hughes and put up for public amusement by S. J. Kink, will be presented at the Auditorium, Saturday, matinee and night, Nov. 29, coming from New York, where at the Liberty Theatre it ran straight-away months. Its Broadway hit was in part due to the farce is delightfully amusing, and its wit and humor, such comedy, and its clever characters, and their adventures on a trip in the west provided continuous amusement. It is a play of laughter for everybody all the time, just the thing for those who go to the theatre to relax and be amused until every care on earth is chased away by mirth. It is like eating of a nut, and taking a really two-hundred-mile, four-day trip on a railroad train. It isn't so merry for some of the passengers, when makes it all the merrier for the onlooker. The passenger's troubles are not yours, and having none of your own you can laugh at the whims and predicaments of the other fellows, and you will laugh too. "Excuse Me" sets forth the adventures of a railway journey, halfway across the continent. The entire play is acted in a train. The characters are the passengers and train crew. It is a vastly amusing version of what might actually happen to just such persons and it is cleverly realized. Seats now selling.

Scene From the Famous Comedy "Excuse Me," at Auditorium Saturday, Matinee and Evenings.

"A Butterfly on the Wheel."

A great attraction that is soon to appear at the Auditorium Tuesday, December 2, is the celebrated artist, Charlotte Lillard, in "A Butterfly on the Wheel," the play that has had such sensational success in London and New York. It was written by two English authors of note and has for its scene an English divorce trial—Miss Lillard essays the role of a young frail wife—"The Butterfly" whose conduct being misconstrued morally, results in a trying ordeal in divorce proceedings instituted by her husband. Miss Lillard's acting is said to be a triumph in diversified emotions.

The Orpheum.

Large crowds attended the Orpheum Thanksgiving afternoon and evening and witnessed one of the best bills of the season. The first on the bill, Prof. Morris, by special request, was held over for the last three days. His act is one that pleases both young and old. Prof. Morris is a man of rare ability, and his act is recognized throughout the vaudeville world as one of the best of the kind.

Prof. Morris, Ventriloquist.

the butterfly and Spanish dances cannot be surpassed. She is a charming mix of rare beauty and ability. Miss Kemp wears a costume of one hundred yards of silk in one of her numbers. As a Spanish dancer she cannot be excelled. Dingley and Norton are exceptionally clever musicians. They play on trumpet, cornet, trombone, saxophone, violin, piano and French horn. With each retirement and reappearance upon the stage they wear different costumes. Their act is quite the hit of the season and is in great demand throughout the country.

A Musical Luncheon

With most of us making dates in our engagements for operas and concerts, and arranging musicales on our own schedule of entertainments, a musical luncheon would be an appropriate entertainment just now, and one that music lovers especially would enjoy.

A harp or other musical instrument, made of flowers, would make a pretty centerpiece; or if this is too difficult to achieve, bars of music could be outlined with flowers or leaves, and flowers used for notes. A few bars of some favorite melody could be thus arranged, and would make a most attractive centerpiece, and one that would be decidedly interesting.

Many pictures can be made by pasting pictures of composers upon cards. These pictures can be found in the magazines, often among the children's pages, and in many places. They can be cut out and pasted on the cards with pictures of a taste or musician, without in any way increasing the cost of the entertainment. A few bars of music from a most famous work of the composer whose picture is on the card would add the cards with much interest. And if any of the guests have a favorite composer, it would be a delicate compliment to give her the card bearing his name.

If it were possible to serve the particularly liked by famous musicians, such a feature would add to the interest of the luncheon. And musical games can be played during the course of the luncheon, if the ladies desire.

For favors, little baskets, tin boxes, drums and such things filled with candy can be found in the stores in great variety, and make interesting little souvenirs, as well as add to the attractive appearance of the table.

After the luncheon is over, a musical program can be given, either by the guests. If they are willing, or by some well-known musician, if the ladies wish to provide such a treat. Or if she does not object to the expense, she can arrange for the playing of an opera matinee or afternoon concert, and then offer her guests a box party at the performance.

Or, if some other form of entertainment is desired after the luncheon, cards or other games can be played, or a series of a musical character. There are delightful books of cards of musical subjects. Fine photographs of composers can be secured. And there are many garden reproductions of famous pictures that music lovers would welcome. And there are some more practical gifts, such as music rolls, metronomes and such things.

So that a woman will find a number of musical friends could give a very enjoyable entertainment of this sort, and one that the music lovers of her set would thoroughly enjoy.

RIVERS DEFEATS LEACH CROSS IN A FAST BATTLE

Los Angeles, Nov. 23.—Joe Rivers, the Los Angeles Mexican, defeated Leach Cross, the New York light-weight, in 20 rounds of fighting at the Vernon arena yesterday. After two knockdowns in the fourth and twelfth rounds, Cross showed marvelous recuperative powers and fought bravely, but could not overcome the lead Rivers won by consistent and vicious milling.

Cross had a marked advantage in five rounds, while Rivers led in 13. Referee George Blake's decision was popular with the crowd.

The most spectacular of the 20 rounds was the nineteenth, when Cross, apparently tired and beaten, electrified his supporters by leaping after Rivers and fighting him off his feet. At the bell, the Mexican was hanging on.

Rivers' first knockdown was scored in the fourth with a short left hook to the jaw. Cross remained for the count of nine. Rivers repeated this feat in the twelfth, flooring Cross with right and left swings to the face. Cross was plainly dazed and once more took the count of nine.

Clabby Wins in Fourteenth.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Jimmy Clabby, the Hammond, Ind., middle-weight, defeated Soldier Frank Logan in the fourteenth round of a scheduled 20-round fight here yesterday. Referee Griffin stopped the unequal bout.

Not a single round could be credited to Logan. In the eighth Logan caught Clabby with a short right hand punch that loosened Clabby's false teeth. Clabby, with his gloved left hand, plucked the teeth from his upper jaw and tossed them into his corner.

In the tenth round Clabby dazed Logan with heavy right smashes to the stomach and uppercuts to the chin. Logan reeled as he took his corner with a broken nose.

In the thirteenth Logan was knocked down, but lasted out the round. He was ready to quit when he rose for the fourteenth and there was no dissent from the referee's decision.

Dillon Batters Petroskey.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 23.—Jack Dillon defeated "Sailor" Petroskey in their 12-round fight here yesterday. The Indianapolis lad was too fast and clever for the marine and in the 8th round floored him with a right uppercut that had stopped a less game fighter than Petroskey. The sailor took punishment and fought hard all the time, but did not land an effective blow.

SUDDEN DEATH AFTER LEAVING SUPPER TABLE

Frank J. Hutchinson, 53, living on the Newark-Zanesville road, and father of Ralph A. Hutchinson, the well known Armour packing house representative in this city, died suddenly at 6:10 o'clock Thursday evening. Mr. Hutchinson had been to Zanesville in the afternoon and returned about 5 o'clock, meeting his family at the supper table. He sat down for a few minutes only and remarking that he was not feeling very well retired to his room on the second floor where he was found cold in death an hour later by a son-in-law, who had gone to the room to see how he was feeling. Members of the family worked with him for a half hour until a physician reached the residence, but life was extinct, dissolution evidently occurring shortly after leaving the supper table.

Mr. Hutchinson was one of the best known residents of Muskingum county, residing about a mile west of Zanesville and engaged in stock and crop raising for many years. He was active in politics being one of the Democratic leaders of the county and served as deputy treasurer of Muskingum county and was also a member of the Board of Elections for about fifteen years and also secretary of the Democratic County Central committee for a similar period.

Besides the son, Ralph A. Hutchinson, who resides in Hudson avenue, this city, there is left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father, the widow and a daughter, Mrs. O. J. Ralle, who resides in Fourth street, Zanesville.

Funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home and interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery at Zanesville.

VALUE OF RHEUMA FROM THE COURT

Judge Barhorst Was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Failed.

If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for Rheumatism and found they failed, do not be skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhorst of Fort Loraine, O.: "After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now two years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously, I was a cripple, walking with crutches."

Such testimony should be convincing. 50 cents of Evans' Drug Store, guaranteed.

Origin of the Drama.
The drama, in the only sense in which it is worth talking about, had its origin in Greece immediately following the defeat of Darius and Xerxes, about B. C. 460. Its birthplace was Athens, and its fathers were Aeschylus and Aristophanes—Aeschylus of tragedy and Aristophanes of comedy. When the Greek and Roman civilization went into eclipse under the black cloud of northern barbarism the theater, as with nearly everything else, became extinct, but during the middle ages acting was in a measure resumed in the form of the "Moralities," or moral plays of the ecclesiastics, and it was from such plays that the modern drama was slowly evolved.—St. Louis Times.

Flaky Piecrust.
If you want the best piecrust it should be made the day before you wish to use it and put into the refrigerator. Then the crust will be flaky and crisp. If you wish it to retain the crispness after baking let the pie cool thoroughly before putting into closet or sideboard. Never put the baked pie into the refrigerator or it will be soggy.

Foster's Negro Melodies.

"For a period of thirty years or so," says the Musical America, "Stephen Collins Foster was so far ahead of all competitors as the most popular American composer that the others were scarcely in sight. While we know little enough about a great many of his melodies today, such songs as 'The Old Folks at Home,' 'My Old Kentucky Home,' 'Old Uncle Ned' and 'Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground' have sunk deeper and more permanently into the American heart than any other songs ever written in America. For a better understanding of Foster it is well to remember that his melodies had nothing whatever to do with negro melodies, the composer's models being the great melodists of the old world—Mozart, Beethoven, Handel. The fact that his songs formed the piece de resistance of negro minstrelsy and therefore in general drew their poetic subject matter from negro life is responsible for the legend, so hard to kill, that his melodies were derived from negro songs."

Hat Island's Unique Rookery.
Hat Island, in the Great Salt Lake, Utah, is probably the most unique rookery in the world, as well as one of the most densely populated. The island contains about twelve acres, and on a rocky pinnacle a hundred feet above the brine, with not a drop of fresh water to be found and where there is nothing to excite the cupidity or commercial instinct of man, the birds—gulls, pelicans, herons and cormorants by the thousands—make their home. The island can be seen at a distance of ten miles, rising like a "cocked hat" out of the sapphire of the inland sea. The birds are utterly fearless. Protected as they are by the laws of the state, they have had little cause to fear man and his death dealing weapons. It is necessary to use the greatest care to avoid stepping on the nests and eggs of the tens of thousands of sea fowl that have established their rookeries on the islet.—Argonaut.

A Change of Front.
The famous surgeon, the late Dr. William Bull of New York, once asked Dr. Osler to join him in a drive through the park in his gig. On one of the upper reaches of the drive the horse grew restive, rearing and pawing in a spirited way that Dr. Bull was familiar with and not the least afraid of.

"Gently—go gently, William," said Dr. Osler. "Don't irritate him. Always soothe your horse, William. And I think you will do better without me on the seat. Pray let me down."

When Dr. Osler was once safely landed on the ground, however, he said: "Now, William, touch him up. Never let a horse get the better of you. Touch him up, conquer him, don't spare him. And now, William, I'll leave you to manage him. I'll walk back," concluded the man willing to ostracize anybody else.—New York Tribune.

Musical Epigrams.
Walter Damrosch, the noted musician, answered at a luncheon a toast on music. Mr. Damrosch was in good vein, and the following are by no means the best of the epigrams that illuminated his remarks:

"Some pianists play from note, some from ear and some from spite."

"A drinking song need not necessarily have a rest in every bar."

"Composers are musicians with memories."

Women and Love.
Women for the most part do not love us. They do not choose a man because they love him, but because it pleases them to be loved by him. They love love of all things in the world, but there are very few men whom they love personally.—Alphonse Kerr.

Love is a curious thing. A girl doesn't even marry a professional ball player because he is a good catch.

John Bright and Queen Victoria.
In the "Life of John Bright" the author relates that the great man's first visit to Queen Victoria was an ordeal, but it passed off well. The incident was described in a letter from Lord Granville to Mr. Gladstone in which the writer says:

The beginning of dinner was awful—the queen with a sick headache and shy—Princess Louise whispering unintelligibly in my ear and Lady Clifford shouting ineffectually into the still more impenetrable receptacle of sound belonging to Charles Grey. Bright like a war horse championing his bit and dying to be at them. At last an allusion to children enabled me to tell Bright to repeat to her majesty his brother's observation, "Where, considering what charming things children were, all the queer old men came from." This amused the queen, and all went on merrily.

A Wise Tip.
Secretary—A subscriber writes to ask us the best way to prevent the annoying attentions of strange men who follow her.

Correspondence Editor—Tell her to turn and ask the man for a donation for the militant suffragettes.—Judge.

Lovers.
They hold each other's hand, and then they kiss
(Caresses her as warm winds from the south).
As they repeat it o'er and o'er there's bliss.
It seems, in living thus from hand to mouth.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Speed and Endurance.
"Money went a whole lot further in the old days than it does now," said the old fogey.
"That's because it didn't go so fast," explained the wise guy.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Camden man who never gets to the ferry until the boat is pulling out admits that he has a weakness for jumping at conclusion.

TWO PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM THE COUNTY JAIL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Mansfield, O., Nov. 28.—Edward Burgraf, under sentence to the state reformatory for the murder of Carpet Moore, a year ago last September and William Ervin Tindall, indicted by the grand jury on a charge of forgery, made their escape from the Richland county jail this morning by breaking the locks on their cell doors. Turnkey Hoffman unlocked the outer door to let a plumber in, then fastened it with a bolt. Later a second plumber came, let himself in by lifting the bolt, but did not put the bolt back in place. Tindall's wife is in the same jail awaiting trial, after being indicted by the grand jury for passing saws to her husband. The first attempt Tindall made at jail delivery was frustrated by another prisoner who tipped the story off.

STATE BINDERY IS STILL USING CRUDE METHODS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 28.—There are crude hand methods in vogue at the state bindery that belong to the era when the horses hoofs and the flail were used for threshing purposes, according to State Printer Frank Harper who made his annual report to the governor today. Mr. Harper says that to bring the bindery up to the standard of an efficient workshop an expenditure of $122,400 for the purchase and installation of modern machinery is necessary. He declares the state would save money by improving the bindery. The total expenditures of the department during the year were $160,250.88, and of this $160,250.88 was for printing and $42,199.62 for binding. The salary of the state printer is $2,500.

Obituary

Noble J. Huffman.
The funeral of Noble J. Huffman, aged 18 years, son of John and Alice Huffman, who died Thursday afternoon at 1:17 o'clock at the home of his parents at 213 West Locust street, will be held at the home Saturday at 11 o'clock. Rev. L. C. Sparks, conducting the service, after which the body will be taken to Frazzsburg where services will be held at the M. E. Church at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in the Frazzsburg cemetery.

Ned Dilley.
Ned, the five-year-old son of George and Blanche Dilley, died Thursday, in his mother's home at home, after a short illness with diphtheria. The child was a grandson of Common Pleas Court Bailiff E. Emswiler. The funeral services will be under quarantine regulations.

Mrs. Abram Miller.
Sophia C. Prattman was born in Lettersburg, Md. April 22, 1836. Married Abram Miller, March 25, 1862. To this union nine children were born, five of whom died in infancy. In March, 1882, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, with their family, moved to Newark from Hagersstown, Md. Mr. Miller being at the head of the Newark Machine company. Mr. Miller's death occurred in 1900. In the death of this noble woman Newark has lost one who was foremost in all good works. She was a charter member of the board of lady managers of the city hospital; president of the Ladies' Aid society of the Second Presbyterian church for sixteen years until declining age compelled her to leave her burden to others. After her failing health she was made honorary vice president of the Missionary society. Mrs. Miller was indeed a Christian who lived the life. Her deeds of kindness, thoughtfulness and cheer brought happiness to many an aching heart. She was a Godly woman, her every act and thought was of Him in whom she long ago had placed her trust, and unimpaired by death.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to express our heartfelt thanks for kindness and sympathy during sickness and last of my beloved husband and dear friends, friends and Rev. Ward and church. Mrs. Geo. A. Wilson and Florence. 28-11

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 28.—Funeral services for the late William Wilson, president of the Southern Railway system, were held here this morning in St. John's Episcopal church, attended by many government officials and his former associates in the commercial and transportation department. As the body was carried into the church just before 11 o'clock, all activities over the Southern railway's 7000 miles of road ceased for five minutes. Employees everywhere laid down their work, trains came to a standstill and in shops machinery ceased to turn. Officials and employees at headquarters of the company assembled in front of the general offices on Pennsylvania avenue and marched to the church in a drizzling rain.
